The Nude – 2012 November 2 thru December 15, 2012

Call for submissions:

The mystique of the figure. Is it muse, provocateur or a means to master a technical discipline through observation? Studio Quercus seeks to present a survey of work by California artists. What are they contemplating and creating now, in studios and art practices.

ABOUT STUDIO QUERCUS

Studio Quercus is a non-profit visual and performing arts space, established in 2008. An artists-run organization, Studio Quercus provides a conducive and congenial space and exceptional support for visual and performing artists to show their work. It is a place that cultivates creative exploration and an exchange of ideas, allowing for the unexpected to happen. We uphold our mission with a great variety of multi-discipline programs, including individual and group exhibitions, live music, film screenings, performing arts events and artist talks.
